Herding Workshop

"Improving Your Trial Technique"

Date: May 11 & 12, 2019

Time: 9:30 am to 5:00 pm

ALL HERDING BREEDS INVITED

10 Working Spaces Available    Sign Up Early    Unlimited Spectator Spaces

THE CLINIC: Designed for handlers/dogs working at all levels: Started/Open/Advanced, to be held in 150 X 200' and 65' X 100' arenas. Workshop will cover: understanding arena trials, utilizing the handler's line, maneuvering the arena course and obstacles, keeping distance, helping the dog learn to drive, and other training and handling tips. Stock available will be sheep, ducks, and turkeys. Dogs should be trial ready.

THE CLINICIAN: Claire Apple is an AHBA herding judge. She is known for breeding, raising, training and handling Shetland Sheepdogs in multiple events - herding, obedience, rally, tracking, carting, nosework, and more. Claire works with all herding breeds and has been giving private lessons and clinics since 2000. She is known for being a specialist in the herding of loose eyed dog breeds. She is always busy... offering private training, competing and handling a variety of dogs for herself and numerous owners, judging trials, and doing clinics.

THE CLINIC SITE: Not Quite Right Farm, 124 Guthrie Rd., Pittsboro, NC 27312

Lunch, snacks will be provided.
