

The Carolina Australian
Shepherd Club presents
A Tracking Workshop

Tracking Workshop - Dec. 8-9, 2018

with

Gretchen Chapman Stephenson
Onward We Go!

BACK! BY POPULAR DEMAND! This two day seminar will focus on advancing those teams that have a good understanding of tracking and want to progress. Dogs and handlers will be working TDX challenges and introducing more involved handling and scenting skills. Please dress for the weather... this workshop will be held at Cedarock Park, in Burlington, NC. We have a shelter rented for the weekend, but is mostly open to the elements. Bring a harness, tracking line, water, lots of treats and chair, etc. Lunch and snacks provided.

Instructor

Gretchen Chapman Stephenson

In 1995 Gretchen got her first “grown up” dog – a Weimaraner - who introduced her to the world of scent through tracking and hunting. In 2003, Gretchen graduated with a Master Trainer Certificate from the Tom Rose School specializing in tracking. She is an AKC TD, TDU, TDX and VST judge as well as a CPDT-KA, CGC evaluator and Therapy Dog evaluator. Gretchen has put multiple tracking titles on her dogs including an AKC Champion Tracker title and has worked with over 50 breeds of dogs since 2003 when she began teaching tracking. Gretchen loves watching dogs track and helping tracking teams reach their full potential.
